GOD UNDERSTANDS

It is so sweet to know,
When we are tired and when the hand of pain
Lies on our hearts, and when we look in vain
For human comfort, that the Heart Divine
Still understands these cares, both yours and mine.
Not only understands, but, day by day,
Lives with us while we lead the earthly way;
Bears with us all our weariness, and feels
The shadows of the faintest cloud that steals
Across our sunshine; ever learns again
The depth and bitterness of human pain.

There is no sorrow that He will not share,
No cross, no burden, for our hearts to bear
Without His help, no care of ours too small
To cast on Jesus; let us tell Him all—
Lay at His feet the story of our woes,
And in His sympathy find sweet repose.

Union services held at the Baptist church last Sunday evening were very enjoyable with a historical missionary sermon delivered by Rev. Clyde Darsie. As usual the choir furnished an enjoyable program. The duet furnished by Mrs. J. S. Wilson and Mrs. Lucien Bridgforth was very fine, holding an appreciative audience within its musical and pathetic charms. Rev. Darsie paid a deserving compliment to the Baptist congregation for having furnished such delightfully cool quarters, saying, "If this is a foretaste of the auditorium, then the half has not been told."
